Rebecca Schaller joins Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage in Parker as Broker Associate

PARKER, Colo. – February 19, 2013 - Rebecca Schaller, a member of the South Metro Denver Realtor Association, the Colorado Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors, has joined Coldwell Banker's office in Parker as a broker associate. Schaller is now serving the real estate needs of clients throughout the Parker and surrounding communities of Aurora, Highlands Ranch, Denver, Thorton and Westminster.

"We are thrilled to welcome Rebecca to our top producing team of real estate professionals," said Diane Vervaet, managing broker of Coldwell Banker's Parker office. "She is a seasoned professional with a stellar track record. Her dedication to find her client's dream home and attention to customer service will be invaluable as she advances her career with Colorado's leading real estate company."

Schaller is a recognized leader in the residential real estate market. Schaller earned her real estate license in 2004 and was the highest producing agent with Century 21 Advantage Plus in 2010. Schaller enjoys yoga, skiing and watching her kids race motorcycles. She also spends time volunteering for Frontier Valley Elementary School.

Schaller chose Coldwell Banker because of the tremendous support and marketing programs as well as the brand's professional image.

Coldwell Banker's office in Parker is located at 18801 E Main Street, Suite 250, and can be reached at 720.427.0679. Schaller may be reached directly at 720.394.3268 or via e-mail at rebecca.schaller@coloradohomes.com.
